

PAT CONDON

COUNTY ATTORNEY

Pat Condon is a 34-year prosecutor and two-term Lancaster County Attorney known for his steady leadership, fairness, and commitment to public safety. Born and raised on his family's farm, Pat learned the values of hard work, honesty, and service — principles that continue to guide him today.

Pat began his career in the courtroom trying criminal cases ranging from theft to sexual assault to homicide. Over the years, he built a reputation for balanced judgment, strong partnerships with law enforcement, and unwavering focus on community safety. Pat has twice been named Nebraska Prosecutor of the Year for his work on complex and high-profile cases.

As County Attorney, Pat leads a team of more than 40 attorneys and 85+ staff across the Criminal, Civil, Juvenile, and Child Support divisions. He is a statewide leader in expanding evidence-based diversion and problem-solving courts that reduce recidivism and help non-violent offenders return as productive members of the community.

Pat and his wife of 32 years, Carol Ann, have two adult daughters who live and work in Lincoln. Pat remains active in the community, volunteering at St. Joe's Catholic Church and assisting on the family farm.

With a record of experience, integrity, and innovation, Pat continues to serve Lancaster County with the fairness and professionalism Nebraskans deserve.
